Calendario Outlook

Calendario Google

The screenshot shows the Google Calendar interface. On the left, under 'My calendars', there is a section for 'Other calendars' with a '+' button. A green circle labeled '1' is over this button. A red box highlights the '+ Add calendar' button in the top right corner of the main calendar area. A context menu is open at the bottom of the calendar area, with a green circle labeled '2' over the 'From URL' option. This menu also includes 'Subscribe to calendar', 'Create new calendar', and 'Import'. To the right, a 'Settings' panel is open with a green circle labeled '3' over the 'Add calendar' button in the 'From URL' section. A red box highlights the URL input field containing 'https://outlook.office365.com/owa/calendar/d86192'. Below it, a checkbox for 'Make the calendar publicly accessible?' is shown. A red box highlights the 'Add calendar' button. On the far right, another calendar view shows a red box highlighting the 'Company Programme 202...' entry in the 'Other calendars' list.

Calendario Apple

The screenshot shows the Mac OS X Calendar application. In the top menu bar, the 'File' menu is open, with a green circle labeled '1' over the 'New Calendar Subscription...' option. A red box highlights this option. A sub-menu window titled 'New Calendar Subscription...' is open, with a green circle labeled '2' over the 'Calendar URL:' input field. A red box highlights this field, which contains the URL 'i7da45063ddd15210573183356013603/calendar.ics'. Below it are 'Cancel' and 'Subscribe' buttons. In the center, a calendar window shows the month of November 2020. A green circle labeled '3' is over the 'Every day' option in a dropdown menu for a repeating event. A red box highlights the 'OK' button. In the bottom right, a separate window titled 'Company Programme 2020 2021 (DE) Info' is open, showing event details. A green circle labeled '4' is over the 'Company Programme...' entry in the 'My calendar' list. A red box highlights the checkmark next to it.
